To Globally Make Disciples, Develop Leaders, and Plant Churches.

Digital Media Manager

JOB DESCRIPTION

We're looking for a team player to help us continue to improve Open Bible Churches' digital presence with a strong emphasis on telling our story, including but not limited to social media, web, video, and design.

LOCATION:	Des Moines, Iowa
LEVEL:	Full time professional with salary and benefits
DEPARTMENT:	Communication
REPORTS TO:	President Randall A. Bach

JOB SUMMARY

The Digital Media Manager works with the President and Communication Team of the Open Bible Churches (OBC) marketing department to provide support for OBC's online properties and communication initiatives. The functions of the team involve communicating OBC's message in a compelling way that informs and inspires people (Open Bible family as well as the general public) and moves them to be involved in our initiatives. To accomplish this goal, we use the communication tools of: online design/development, digital marketing, social media, and digital media as well as other supportive functions as they relate to digital content and development. The Digital Media Manager is also a digital futurist who monitors contemporary digital trends and future developments in order to advise the President regarding leveraging digital media for maximized fulfillment of Open Bible Churches' mission. More than just a job, this responsibility presents an opportunity to fulfill a call to serve God.
